

PET'S POINT OF VIEW

Pet Death Doula Training: A Comprehensive 4-Day Journey

A transformative exploration of compassionate end-of-life care for animals for pet professionals, animal lovers, and pet parents

Questions? Book a free Discovery Call

Pre-Workshop:

- Detailed questionnaire to understand your experience and goals
- Preparation materials and reading list
- Initial self-reflection questionnaire

Day 1: Foundations & Cultural Understanding & Meet Your Peers

- Cultural paradigms around animal death and dying
- Creating new perspectives on the transition process
- Building a compassionate end-of-life culture

- The sacred human-animal bond
- Understanding the phases of dying
- Tools for discernment between human and animal pain

Day 2: Holding Space & Practical Care

- The art of holding sacred space
- Holistic end-of-life care approaches
- Creating meaningful rituals and ceremonies

- Supporting through terminal illness
- Navigating sudden or unexpected death
- Practical aspects of being a death doula

Day 3: Supporting Pet Guardians

Morning:

- Guiding guardians through pet hospice
- Supporting during euthanasia decisions
- After-death care and support
- Compassionate communication

Day 4: Integration & Professional Development

- Understanding surviving pets' needs
- Grief support techniques

- Building a sustainable practice
- Self-care and mindfulness practices
- Developing your unique approach
- Building your support network
- Case studies and practical applications
- Resource sharing and next steps
- Creating your action plan

Ongoing Support Includes:

- Comprehensive course materials
- Access to private pet death doula Facebook group
- Email support as needed
- Additional resources and continuing education opportunities

Pre-workshop materials will be provided upon registration.
Limited enrollment to ensure personal attention.

Questions? Book a free Discovery Call